

draw or describe game

You will need:

a pile of white paper (about the size of a memo pad or small envelope) coloured pencils or pens to draw with

How to play:

Write the words 'draw or describe' on one side of each piece of paper. The game works best if you have twenty pieces of paper or more.

Under the words 'draw or describe' ask everybody to write one thing on each piece of paper which could be drawn or described using words.

Choose some of these ideas or think of your own:

something you always carry with you something urban
a journey
the street where you live
a forest
something you pass every day a hill
a sandwich
the sky
a wild animal
a cloud
an egg
the last walk you went on a mountain

a super power
the city
a bus trip
the seaside
a pinecone
your favourite place
a flower
a shed
a blade of grass
a skyscraper
raspberries
cheese

a book
a pair of shoes
a puddle
another planet
a spider
something that makes you happy
your nose
jelly
a volcano
rain
something you would like to change a pineapple
a monkey

Put all of the pieces of paper in a box, bag or hat to make a lucky dip.

Ask everybody to pick one piece of paper out of the box and have a go at drawing or describing the item on the other side of the paper.

Agree whether you are going to allow people to swap if they don't like what they choose!

You could display the completed papers by hanging them up.
